Background

This file is an example of a Quarto Markdown File. It contains areas that consist of written text.

```
And areas that contain code (or # comments)

getwd()
```

```
[1] "C:/Users/AYLOTTI/Documents/21 Cytometry/Rflow"
```

In this walkthrough, we weill explore how we can combine these elements to not only better document our code, but also create webpages and reports.
